ROMULUS RIGGS,
AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern, Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE
AND DAILY ADVERTISER.
PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.
Daily Gazette, 7 dols. Country, 5 dols.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1818.

Italia—Italia—O tu Cui feci la Sorte.
BY LORD BYRON.

ITALIA! oh Italia! thou who hast The fatal gift of beauty, which became A funeral dower of present woes and past.
On thy sweet brow is sorrow ploughed by shame,
And annals graven in characters of flame.
Oh God! that thou wert in thy nakedness Less lovely or more powerful, and couldst claim Thy right, and awe the robbers back, who press,
To shed thy blood, and drink the tears of thy distress.

Then might'st thou more appal; or, less desired,
Be homely and be peaceful, undeveloped For thy destructive charms; then, still un-tired
Would not be seen the armed torrents poured
Down the deep Alps: nor would the hostile horde
Of many-nationed spoilers from the Po, Quaff blood and water; nor the stranger's sword
Be thy sad weapon of defence, and so, Victor or vanquish'd, thou the slave of friend or foe.

Yet, Italy! through every other land Thy wrongs should ring, and shall, from side to side;
Mother of arts! as once of arms; thy hand Was once our guardian, and is still our guide; Parent of our religion! whom the wide Nations have knelt to for the keys of heaven Europe, repentant of her periculis, Shall yet redeem thee, and, all backward driven,
Roll the barbarian tide and sue to be forgiven.

From M. Gill's travels in Turkey, Italy, and Russia.

METHOD OF HORSE-RACING IN ITALY.
The method of horse-racing in Italy is singular. The horses run without riders; and to urge them on, little bells, with sharp points in them, are hung to their sides, which, when the horse is engaged in the race, act like spurs. They have also pieces of tin fastened on their hinder parts, which, as the animals rush through the air, make a loud rustling noise and frighten them forward. I was much pleased with the horse-races at Ancona. A gun is fired when they first start, that preparations may be made to receive them, at the farther end; when they have run half way, another gun is fired; and another when they arrive at the goal. To ascertain without dispute which wins the race, across the winning post a thread is stretched, dipped in red lead, which the victor breaking, it leaves a red mark upon his chest, and this is decisive. The first race was deemed unfair, as one of the horses started before the rest; and the Governor ordered another to be run the following evening. To guard the course, a great number of Roman soldiers under arms were arranged on each side of it, from one end to the other. The morning after the first race, the wind blew from the north and it was rather cold. I was sitting with his Excellency the Governor, Signor Nidoni, when a message arrived from the General, with his compliments, requesting that the race might be deferred till another day, as he thought the weather too cold to put his troops under arms! The governor replied to him, "that as the weather was not too cold for the ladies, he thought it was not too much so for Roman soldiers." I have seen on a day which only threatened rain, a guard of Romans turn out, every man had an umbrella under his arm, the drummer and fife alone excepted.

FROM THE CONNECTICUT MIRROR.

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC SUMMARY.
The latest news from England is up to the 8th of September, by the Jane, arrived at Philadelphia; but the accounts by her furnish nothing of moment to this country.
The Queen of England lay dangerously ill at Kew, and was not expected to survive many days.

BRITISH INDIA.—The struggle of the native powers in the peninsula of Hindostan, with the British forces, continued up to the 5th of Aug. with various success on the part of the latter. The Paisewa whose insurrection some months since at Poonah was the proximate cause of the present war, still keeps the field with a large force of fifty thousand men, of which three thousand are horse—but he is obliged to wander from point to point, not daring to come to action. Accounts are given of several attacks upon Indian fortresses, which were generally successful—but a grand assault by the English upon Mallagum, under Lieut. Col. McDowall, was defeated with severe loss.

CHARITY.
There is an assertion, affirmed by a writer of great celebrity, to the infinite honor of the lower order of society, viz: that all which the rich give to the poor in private beneficence, is but a mite and a trifle, when compared with what the poor give to one another.

The Winchester Gazette mentions the extraordinary case of a negro woman, born in Virginia, about forty years of age, originally very black, who has undergone a change of color. Four parts in five of her skin are as white, smooth and transparent, as in a fair European. Her face and neck discover the veins under the skin; and the blush of the rose plays beautifully over the lily white skin, when excited by the passions of shame or anger.

ALEXANDRIA:
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1818.

A letter was last evening received by a gentleman in this place, under date Havana, October 12, 1818, which quoted flour 18 a 19 dollars, plenty and dull; coffee 33 dollars per 100 lbs. sales; sugars, brown, 8 a 9; white, 12 a 14.

Capt. Carroway, of the schr Thos. Tennant, which arrived here on Saturday, from St. Thomas and Martinique, having touched also at St. Eustatia and St. Martins, informs, that he saw at anchor at the latter place, two ships with their sails unfurled, their rigging loose and in the utmost disorder. Capt. C. was informed that these vessels had been captured and re-captured three different times, by the Spaniards and Patriots, and left by their last captors in the above situation; that a quantity of wearing apparel, among which, a parcel of women's and children's clothing, was found on board. It was reported at St. Martins, that an American brig loaded with mahogany and cotton, had been sunk in sight of that Island. Capt. C. could hear nothing of her crew. [Norfolk Beacon.]

FROM THE NEW-YORK DAILY ADVERTISER.

The Acadian (Halifax) Recorder, of the 17th of October, contains a proclamation from Governor Lawrence, of Nova Scotia, stating the conditions on which lands will be granted to settlers within that colony.
That townships are to consist of ten thousand acres of land, or about twelve miles square—they are to include the best and most profitable land—to comprehend such rivers as may be at, or near, such settlement; and extend as far up into the country as conveniently may be, taking in a necessary part of the sea coast. The quantities of land will be in proportion to the abilities of the settlers to plant, cultivate, or inclose the same, viz. 100 acres to every master or mistress of a family, for himself or herself, and 50 acres for every white or black man, woman or child, of which such family shall consist, at the time of making the grant, subject to a quit-rent of one shilling per annum for every fifty acres, the quit-rent to commence at the expiration of 10 years from the date of each grant. The grantees to be obliged to plant, cultivate, improve, or enclose one third part of their lands in 10 years, another third part in 20 years, and the remaining third part in 30 years, from the time of the grants. No person can possess (by grants) more than one thousand acres—every person upon producing proof that he has fulfilled the terms of his grant, shall be entitled to another in the same proportion, and upon similar conditions. The lands proposed to be granted, situated upon the Bay of Fundy, are to be distributed with such proportion of interval, plow-land, mowing land, and pasture, as will be sufficient to maintain their respective families.

By the laws of the province, full liberty of conscience is secured to all religious persuasions, papists excepted, and that all Protestant Dissenters from the Church of England, may erect their own houses of public worship, elect ministers, and all contracts between them and their congregations are declared to be valid; and the dissenters are freed from the payment of taxes to the support of the established Church of England. We presume the object of this document is, to induce our countrymen to emigrate to the northward, instead of the southward and westward. What its effects will produce, remains to be ascertained.

CHARITY.
There is an assertion, affirmed by a writer
compared with what the poor give to one another.

The Winchester Gazette mentions the
in Virginia, about forty years of age, origi-
skin are as white, smooth and transparent,
blush of the rose plays beautifully over the
lily white skin, when excited by the passions of shame or anger.

We are astonished at the great increase

The cattle show, ploughing match, &c. &c.

place at Northampton last week. Mr.

highest expectations of his friends; it was replete with sound sense, valuable agricul-

A great rain took place at Louisville, Ky.

THE MISTAKES OF A NIGHT.—Amongst the prisoners brought up by the watch to the Police office, a few mornings ago, was a young man, accused of an assault and battery on nearly all the inhabitants of a house, including his own wife. He opened a most earnest and clamorous defence, by assuring the justice the whole affair was a mistake.
"I married her, please your honor, altogether in a mistake. I only seen her for the first time, in all my life, about two hours before I married her, so, to be sure, you see that was a mistake. Then I found out that she had a child by another man—was not that a pretty mistake of hers? And, because I would not agree to it, they all fell on me, but I soon made them to know that they were mistaken altogether; and now they want to get me into bridewell, but I hope your honor won't be after making such a mistake as that, for it would bother me to get over it, that would be the worst mistake of all." [New-York Columbian.]

We congratulate our citizens, says the

NEW-YORK, SEPT. 2.
FROM HAVRE.
The ship Comet, capt. Hall, sailed 11th September. She has brought out 250,000 dollars specie, mostly five franc pieces, for the United States' Bank. No change had taken place in the cotton market—rice 60¢; coffee 2¢, and declining—No political news.
Captain H. has favored us with a file of French papers, and a London paper of the 7th of September.

LONDON, SEPT. 7.
PALACE YARD MEETING.
At an early hour this morning, three men were parading the streets, in a cart, exhibiting banners in large red characters, with the following inscription:—"Come All!"
"Public Meeting, Palace Yard, this day at 12 o'clock." One of the principal objects of the meeting, we understand, is that of suggesting the propriety of calling county meetings throughout the kingdom; at which the grievances of each county shall be discussed, and forwarded to the metropolis by twelve delegates, and by them laid before the Prince Regent.

Accounts from Manchester mention that the spinners, after the attack on Gray's premises, on Wednesday, assembled in the evening, but were dispersed, and several of them wounded. On Thursday they assembled again, but were suppressed by the military. It is said they demand an advance of seven shillings in the pound or nothing.

LONDON MARKETS, SEPT. 4.—There have been extensive sales of coffee this week—prices declined 3s on Tuesday, since which they have remained steady. The finer qualities are a shade higher. Tobacco 95 to 105s is asking for Maryland in cargoes; 80 to 90 for Virginia, Richmond inspection; 75 to 78 for Petersburg inspection; and 65 to 70 for Kentucky. Holders expect further advances. Cotton—the demand since our last has been considerable, and as the news this morning from the manufacturing districts is more alarming, it will, no doubt affect the price of cotton. The India sale for the 18th inst. consists of above 30,000 bags. Rice is a shade lower, and little doing. Oil is advancing rapidly. Prices of rum are rather lower. There is a prospect of a revival in the request for brandies, particularly Spanish. The prices of tallow continue to advance—price to day 90s 6.

At Menengen, a new decree has been published relative to the observance of Lord's day. Attendance on Divine wor-of civil officers. Clergymen are ordered to make an annual report of the moral condition of their congregations, in which they are to mention, without respect to persons, the names of all despisers of churches and religious ordinances, and all persons who lead a vicious life. Upon the clergymen it is enjoined, that they make their conduct to coincide with their office and administration.

FROM A MANCHESTER (ENG.) PAPER, SEPT. 22.
This town has been in a sad state of confusion to-day. In the forenoon, numerous bodies of the refractory cotton-spinners, according to their daily custom, assembled about the factory of Messrs. Gray & Co. near Ancoats-street, for the purpose of preventing any one going to work there. In parading round the factory about noon, the spinners assert that stones were thrown at them from the interior of the mill. How far this assertion is true, and whether it be not a report made by the spinners to justify their proceedings, we cannot ascertain.— They, however, began to demolish the windows of the factory, and broke numbers of them, and endeavored to force their way into the mill by breaking open the gates and lower windows. The persons who were in the inside, who were armed, being alarmed for their own safety, as their lives would be in great danger, if the assailants succeeded in entering the mill, fired upon them from the windows. Several of the mob were severely wounded. The number is not known, but it is generally stated at six or seven. Four have been brought to the infirmary dangerously wounded; one of them mortally in the groin—another report says, died almost immediately.

The mob was repulsed by this spirited conduct, and Messrs. Gray & Co. had time to send to the magistrates for assistance,— who speedily arrived with a party of dragoons and infantry. The number of people then assembled was very great, probably about 10 or 12,000; some have estimated them at 30,000. The riot act was read —and after the expiration of an hour the mob dispersed. No one, we believe, was hurt by the soldiers in performing their duty.

The aspect of affairs in this town daily becomes more gloomy. The principal part of the spinners remain as obstinate as ever.
In addition to the spinners, the weavers have now "turned out," and they parade the streets in immense bodies of 4 or 5,000 each. About this number were assembled in St. George's-field, at the time of the attack upon Messrs. Gray & Co.'s factory, but had no connexion with that mob. They carried flags with inscriptions on them that they would have 5s. in the pound advance in their wages. The Lancashire weavers generally possess a mind fearless of the consequences of any illegal acts they may be instigated to commit, and if they unite with the spinners, immense mischief may be committed by them.

Already numbers of petty shop-keepers, who have dealt entirely with the working classes, are almost ruined. Landlords can get no rents, and dare not distrain.

Mr. Norris, the police magistrate, accompanied by Mr. Withington, the boroughreeve, and a number of cavalry, are just gone at full gallop to Messrs. Gray's factory, where, it is reported, immense crowds are again assembled, threatening to fire the mill."

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.
On Wednesday afternoon the whole body of refractory cotton spinners in that place, joined by upwards of 10,000 men from Stockport, paraded the streets in the most menacing manner; and having repaired to the mill of Mr. Benjamin Gray, in which a number of the more peaceably-disposed labourers had returned to work, they threatened to demolish it; and were actually proceeding to carry their threat into effect, when a body of military and police, who were stationed on the inside for the defence of the place, deemed it to be necessary to fire on the aggressors. Five persons, the accounts state, were wounded—two of them mortally. An additional detachment of military having hastened to the spot, the multitude were dispersed without any further mischief. Their total number is estimated at 30,000.

ney, one of the South American commissioners, has completed his report and handed it in to the President of the United States; and are happy to learn that he is the independent provinces on the La Plata.

We wish we could say as much for Mr.
Graham, who, we hear, entertains a different opinion. A diplomatic Mission to Rio Janeiro is now spoken of for the latter gentleman. The other commissioner, Judge Bland, is expected here in a day or two, having arrived in Baltimore, to furnish his statement to the President.

Valuable Land for Sale.
HAVING more land in the tract on which I reside than I can form to advantage, I will expose to public sale, on the 5th day of NOVEMBER next, if fair, if not the next fair day, eight hundred acres, divided into lots of two hundred acres; each lot has seventy acres in wood; of the cleared land one hundred and fifty acres are in clover, and two hundred in rye and wheat. This land is situated ten miles below Alexandria, and is bounded north and east by Accotink creek, which separates the lower part of it from Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price can be had for grain. It is as fertile as any land in the county, and is susceptible of improvement, by clover and plaster, as any I have seen. Persons wishing to view it will call on the subscriber, living at Cedar Grove, one mile below Janney's mill.

The terms will be one-third of the purchase money in hand, and the balance in two equal annual payments. The sale will take place at 12 o'clock, on the premises.
EDGAR MCCARTY.
Fairfax co. Va. October 6

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria and is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Potomac creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six and a half herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaster acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia of Pennsylvania. I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain; being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole; it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might), have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvas backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the River, will be taken in payment. Letters must be addressed to me at Potomac Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
September 4

George Mason.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of General Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence. The improvements are a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables. There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutritious as the best timothy or clover. With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 40 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable.

The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow. It would be sold with the other of separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

Auction & Commission Store.

NATHL. P. BIXBY & CO. respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and commodious store formerly occupied by the late Mr. Thomas Robinson, nearly opposite the Union Bank, Bridge-st. where they will transact all kinds of business in the Auction and Commission line; and as they are determined to give their exclusive attention to that business alone, those gentlemen who are disposed to employ them, have the best guarantee that they will be fairly dealt by. They flatter themselves that a punctual, diligent, and correct attention, together with their general knowledge of business, will secure to them at least an equal share of public patronage. Their intention is to avoid, as much as possible, retailing goods at auction. They are now prepared to receive goods of every description, to sell at public or private sale, and will attend to sales of property at any place within the town.

A YELLOW WOMAN, called Celia

A Ditcher, in the 23d year of her age, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high—marks like moles on the right side of her face, which, with several letters on her left arm, were made with india ink. She is about four months gone in a state of pregnancy—followed her husband, Jim Clark, a yellow man, who was purchased from this place and taken away in company with a large number of slaves; about two weeks ago, by a man of the name of Basset. It is supposed they have gone to the westward: Celia was born free, and had with her a notarial certificate of her freedom, and description of her person. Her mother, the subscriber, is much afflicted by her manner of going away, and desires that any humane people who may chance to meet with her, will persuade her to return, being apprehensive that when she gets into a strange country, where she will be unknown and out of the reach of her friends and those who would be likely to protect her, attempts may be made by some avaricious and unprincipled persons, to deprive her of her liberty, and sell her for a slave. Should any such attempt be made, fifty dollars reward will be paid to any person who will communicate such information as shall lead to the conviction of the offenders, and the recovery of the woman.
